8.1 The Chairperson advised and explained that the meeting had been called to consider and, if thought fit:

8.1.1 to approve the Transaction and the terms of the Transaction Documents;

8.1.2 to approve the execution and delivery by the Company of the Transaction Documents; and

8.1.3 to approve the taking of all appropriate steps in connection therewith.

8.2 Drafts of each of the Transaction Documents were tabled at the meeting.

9 TERMS OF TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS

9.1 The Chairperson summarised to the meeting the main details contained in the Transaction Documents.

9.2 The Chairperson then drew the attention of the meeting to the provisions of the Transaction Documents in so far as they affect the Company, pointing out both the benefits that would accrue to the Company as well as the liabilities and the obligations which the Company would incur under the terms of the Transaction Documents.

10 CONSIDERATION OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS

10.1 The directors carefully considered in detail the Transaction and the terms of the Transaction Documents together with the benefits that would accrue to the Company as a result of entering into the Transaction and should it resolve to execute the Transaction Documents.

10.2 The directors confirmed their full understanding of the effect and implications for the Company of entering into and/or performing its obligations under the Transaction Documents and that they had satisfied themselves that the Company has sufficient resources and adequate arrangements in place to permit the Company to pay its debts in full as they would become due having entered into the Transaction and the Transaction Documents.

10.3 The directors considered the following:

10.3.1 that the constitution of the Company empowered the Company to enter into the Transaction Documents and perform the Transaction, including to borrow monies, give guarantees and indemnities and provide security over its assets and perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents;

10.3.2 that the Company would benefit borrowing under the Loan Agreement;

10.3.3 that the benefits to be derived directly and indirectly from the Company entering into the Transaction Documents are at least the fair equivalent of the obligations to be undertaken by the Company in entering into the Transaction Documents and that the directors believed that the Company would be in a position to give and make each of the covenants, representations and warranties contained therein; and

10.3.4 that the Company is to enter into the Transaction Documents in good faith, for its legitimate business purposes, for full commercial consideration and for its own commercial benefit commensurate with the risks it is taking thereunder and that the conclusions as to commercial justification for the execution and delivery of the Transaction Documents by the Company were reached by each director in good faith and for the benefit of the Company and are conclusions at which such director could reasonably arrive.

10.4 Accordingly after careful consideration of the terms of the Transaction Documents the Directors believe it is in the best interests of the Company and to the commercial benefit and advantage of the Company to participate in the Transaction and enter into the Transaction Documents.

11 APPROVAL OF THE DOCUMENTS

11.1 After further discussion and having carefully considered the proposed Transaction and the form of, terms of and transaction contemplated by the Transaction Documents, it was resolved that:
